DATA PROTECTION

The Institution of Civil Engineers and Thomas Telford Ltd maintain data on all members. We also maintain data on non-members who use our services. This includes addresses, email addresses, professional history and interest where notified. This will be used confidentially for normal purposes, including subscription collection, mailing of publications and notification of conferences and events. Overseas members may have their data transferred to International Country representatives for administration of local events in their country of residence. We also use the information to target journals, training and other services we provide. If you do not wish to receive information of this type, please inform the Data Protection Officer, in writing or at the email address given below. We generate significant income on your behalf from carefully screened third parties who can offer you services; we only arrange this where we believe most of our members and customers will welcome the opportunity. This helps pay for enhanced services. If you do not wish to receive such information, please inform the Data Protection Officer, in writing or at the email address given below. If you have any queries regarding data protection, please email dataprotection@ice.org.uk or contact The Data Protection Officer The Institution of Civil Engineers One Great George Street Westminster London, SW1P 3AA

Your name, job title and company may be published on delegate lists associated with this event. The Institution of Civil Engineers reserves the right not to communicate or publish the attendees list before, during or after the event.
